Yakima Parks and Recreation Issues 2023 Summer Program Guide

The 17th annual “Paws in the Pool,” as well as activities at Washington Fruit Community Center are just a few of the seasonal offerings available in the 2023 Summer Program Guide recently issued by City of Yakima Parks and Recreation.

The guide is now available at the Yakima Parks and Recreation office (2301 Fruitvale Boulevard), as well as online at 2023-YPR-Summer-ProGuide-fpw.pdf \(yakimaparks.com\)

The 16-page Summer Program Guide also includes information about:

- Summer softball tournaments and leagues
- “Dive ‘N Movie” at Franklin Pool
- Traditional and non-traditional sports camps offered throughout the summer
- Lessons including swimming, pickleball, tennis and golf
- Schedules for the free:
 - Viva La Musica series
 - Summer Sunset Concert series
 - Outdoor Summer Cinema series
- An open house to mark the Harman Center’s 19th anniversary, as well as a summer blood drive at the senior center
