Assistant Mayor Holly Cousens Earns Certificate of Municipal Leadership

City of Yakima Assistant Mayor Holly Cousens recently received a Certificate of Municipal Leadership from the Association of Washington Cities (AWC).

AWC's Certificate of Municipal Leadership (CML) program recognizes city and town elected officials for accomplishing training in four core areas:

- Roles, responsibilities and legal requirements
- Public sector resource management
- Community planning and development
- Effective local leadership

“Being a city leader in Washington is a complex job,” said AWC Interim CEO Alicia Seegers Martinelli. “Through our CML program we are helping mayors and councilmembers better understand and address the challenges of effective and equitable leadership, including understanding the legal landscape, budget and resource management, planning and development and more.”

Assistant Mayor Cousens completed more than 30 hours of training credits to earn this distinction.

She represents District 7 on the Yakima City Council. She was elected to City Council in November 2015 and re-elected in November 2019. The Council appointed her assistant mayor in January 2020.

Assistant Mayor Cousens teaches Business Technology courses at Yakima Valley College. She obtained two masters degrees from City University of Seattle, one in Organizational Leadership and the other in Business Administration (MBA)

Earlier this year, Yakima Mayor Patricia Byers also earned her CML.
