

City of Yakima

News Release

Subject: Harman Center Re-Opening

Contact: Parks & Recreation Manager Ken Wilkinson – 576-6416

Communications & Public Affairs Director Randy Beehler – 901-1142

Release Date: Tuesday, February 16th, 2021

Harman Center Re-Opens February 17th

The City of Yakima Harman Center, 101 N. 65th Avenue, will re-open to the public tomorrow, Wednesday, February 17th, as the South Central Region is in Phase 2 of the state's Healthy Washington recovery program.

The Harman Center library, pool room and fireplace sitting area will all be open tomorrow. Crafts, games and coffee bar at the center will resume next Monday, February 22nd.

"We are so excited to welcome the community back to the Harman Center," said Recreation Program Supervisor Leslie Richards. "However, we do ask visitors to continue social distancing measures such as wearing masks and maintaining six feet of separation between each person."

Call the Harman Center at 575-6166 for more information about re-opening plans.

Visit <https://yakimaparks.com/senior-center/> for more about the Harman Center.

The Harman Center and other City facilities have been closed to the public due to restrictions related to Gov. Jay Inslee's phased-in recovery programs due to COVID-19. The City continues to provide services and virtual recreation programs.

Click <https://www.yakimawa.gov/media/points-of-interest/online-city-services/> for information on connecting with City services online and by phone.

Click <https://yakimaparks.com/virtual-recreation-programs/> to access virtual rec programs online.