

CITY OF YAKIMA P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, communities across the country honor and celebrate parents throughout the month of February, which has been designated National Parent Leadership Month; and

WHEREAS, National Parent Leadership Month was initiated by Parents Anonymous® as an opportunity to show appreciation for parents who work to improve the lives of their families, neighbors, and communities; and

WHEREAS, parents do this work by lending their voice to local, state, and national initiatives and partnering with the staff of programs in which they participate; and

WHEREAS, parents are a vital resource in family strengthening and child abuse prevention efforts, and acknowledging their wisdom and contributions is essential not only in February, but all year; and

WHEREAS, meaningful parent leadership occurs when parents gain the knowledge and skills necessary to function in meaningful leadership roles and present a “parent voice” to help shape the direction of their families, programs and communities; and

WHEREAS, the power of parents speaking publicly about their experiences has made, and will continue to make, an impact on the lives of families everywhere; and

WHEREAS, as primary stakeholders, parents are responsible for what and how their children are taught, and how they are brought up; and

WHEREAS, being responsible, parents have the unalienable right to participate in the political process on behalf of the children.

NOW THEREFORE, I Janice Deccio, Mayor of the City of Yakima and on behalf of the Yakima City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of February 2022 as in the City of Yakima.

National Parent Leadership Month

Dated this 15th day of February, 2022

Janice Deccio, Mayor
