

Historical Preservation and Consultation

"Restoring Our Heritage as Our Legacy"

Dave Kuns—Owner

Restoration Workshop

May 21, 2011

9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Guest Speaker Pat Haire of Humbolt, Kansas will lecture on "Manufacturing and Use of 19th-Century Woodworking Machinery."

MILLWORK, INC

340 Carlsonia St.
PO Box 478
Zillah, WA 98953

Phone 509-829-9014
Cell 509-969-9152

email millwork@amerion.com
www.millworkpreservation.com

Workshop Fee: $45 each
RSVP by May 7th

REGISTER NOW—SPACE IS LIMITED AND GOING FAST

Millwork, Inc. invites you to join us as we recognize the great resources our historical properties are today.

Watch as Dave Kuns, owner of Millwork, Inc., and his crew demonstrate the proper techniques for "Window Sash Restoration/Reproduction" and discusses the options available of quality weather stripping systems.

*Donavan Harding of Oregon will also be on hand to answer any questions on vintage
machinery.
User since 1980*

CAN YOU RECOGNIZE OUR NATURAL RESOURCES?

Bonus Session:
Gary Gernoch of G.W. Gernoch Works, Weimar, Texas, will give insight into 19th-century Door and Sash Joinery

*Don't Worry about Going Hungry!
The Kuns Family Crew has lunch provided.*