

CELEBRATE MAPLE STREET INCINERATOR's LISTING on the
YAKIMA REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

Tuesday, January 17, 2012, 10:00a.m., Kiwanis Park @ Maple Street & Fair Avenue.

Cost: FREE.

Join the Yakima Historic Preservation Commission, the South East Neighborhood Improvement Committee (SENIC), and citizens interested in the history of Yakima in saluting the Maple Street Incinerator for its recent listing on the Yakima Register of Historic Places. Completed in 1935, the incinerator was viewed as an innovative method to improve environmental conditions and overall health. The structure's façade remains largely intact and was part of President Franklin's New Deal, the incinerator is an important piece of Yakima's history and its smoke stack has been an icon in southeast Yakima for over seven decades. All citizens are welcome at the event to celebrate Yakima's history.
